Composition
Aspegic Injectable 0.5 g
Each vial contains: 0.9 g lysine acetylsalicylate = 500 mg acetylsalicylic acid.

Aspegic Injectable 1 g
Each vial contains: 1.8 g lysine acetylsalicylate = 1 g acetylsalicylic acid.

Indications
Moderate and severe pain of various origins, rheumatic pain, hyperthermia.

Contraindications
Gastroduodenal ulcer, history of hypersensitivity to salicylates; any hemorrhagic disorders (hereditary or acquired); any risk of hemorrhage; last quarter of pregnancy.
Use is not recommended in: gout, menorrhagia.

Side Effects
Side-effects are those of acetylsalicylic acid.

Precautions
Use with caution in case of: associated anti-coagulant therapy, asthma, renal insufficiency; first two quarters of pregnancy, IUD.

Drug Interactions
Vitamin K blockers and heparin, sulfonylurea, methotrexate, NSAIDs, uricosuric agents.

Dosage and Administration
Aspegic Injectable 0.5 g
Adults: 1 or 2 vials per injection; for severe pain: 2 vials in a single I.V. injection. Usual 24 hour dosage is 1 to 4 vials. In some cases, daily dosage can be increased to 8 vials.
Children: 10-25 mg/kg/day. For children from 6-10 years: 1/2 vial per day. Older than 11 years: 1-2 vials per day.

Aspegic Injectable 1 g
Adults: Usual dosage 1 vial per injection twice daily. Maximal dosage: 4 vials per day.

Packaging
v: 0.5 g x 6 + 5 ml x 6 (water for injection) 0.5 g x 20 (Hospital packs) 1 g x 6 + 5 ml x 6 (water for injection) 1 g x 20 (Hospital packs).