Precautions Concerning Use
Application area:
• Do not apply these products to cornea or conjunctiva as ophthalmic drug.
• Do not apply these products to the areas with marked erosion.
• Apply Mentax® Lotion and Mentax® Spray carefully to areas with fissure or erosion.
• Do not Spray Mentax® Spray to nasal cavity as nasal drop.
• Spray Mentax® Spray carefully to areas having possibilities to inhale ingredients, such as face and head.

SIDE EFFECTS
The major adverse reactions were local symptoms at the application site, such as redness - erythema (54 events, 0.57%), contact dermatitis (39 events, 0.41%), itching (39 events, 0.41%) and irritation (22 events, 0.23%).

Among 1,922 patients treated with Mentax® Lotion, 23 adverse reactions in 16 patients (0.83%) were reported. The major adverse reactions were local symptoms at the application site, such as redness - erythema (7 events, 0.36%), itching (6 events, 0.31%) and irritation (4 events, 0.21%).

At the time of completion of re-examination

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Frequency/Classification</th>
<th>0.1% to 5% Less than 0.1%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Skin</td>
<td>Redness - erythema, itching, contact dermatitis, irritation, blisters</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Erosion, desquamation, fissure</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

STORAGE
Store between 15-25°C in a tight container, away from light.

DESCRIPTION/PACKAGING
Cream
MENTAX® 1% (15 g): Butenafine HCl 10 mg/gm
Excipients: White petrolatum, Cetanol, Stearic Acid, Polyoxyethylene Cetyl Ether, Self Emulsifying Glycerin Monostearate, Propylene Glycol Easters of Fatty Acids, Glycerin, Diethanolamine, Sodium Benzoate

Lotion
MENTAX® 1% (30 ml): Butenafine HCl 10 mg/ml
Excipients: Macrogol 400, Ethanol

Spray
MENTAX® 1% (30 ml): Butenafine HCl 10 mg/ml
Excipients: Macrogol 400, Ethanol

PRECAUTIONS FOR HANDLING
MENTAX® Lotion and Spray is flammable. Keep these products away from fire.